POST No 177-MDST-44

LOCUM STAFF GRADE DOCTOR - OPHTHALMOLOGY

A Locum Staff Grade Ophthalmologist is required at the above modern District General Hospital to commence 12th May 2008 for 1 year in the first instance pending permanent appointment.

Applicants should be fully registered with the GMC with a least 3 years hospital service at SHO or higher level.

The James Paget University Hospital is a modern well equipped District General Hospital with an active PGME Department and excellent Library on site. We are an established training department for undergraduates from the University of East Anglia and provide training for a third of the medical students. There will be opportunities for any interested candidate to become involved in the undergraduate programme.

The post conforms to nationally agreed terms and conditions of service for Staff Grade doctors.

The Trust is an equal opportunities employer and operates a no smoking policy.

The hospital is situated in picturesque countryside in one of the most open and unspoilt areas of the country. It is close to the resort towns of Great Yarmouth and Lowestoft with easy access to the Norfolk Broads and unspoilt coastline. The historic city of Norwich is only 20 miles away and there are excellent rail links to London and easy access to the ports of Felixstowe and Harwich.

For an informal discussion please contact Mr T Butler, Lead Consultant Ophthalmologist on 01493 453673 (secretary) or Ginnie Stevens, Human Resources Manager - Medical Staffing on 01493 452802/452677 (secretary).

Please send the completed application form and additional declarations, together with 3 copies of your CV, to Medical Staffing no later than Friday 14th March 2008. If you have not heard from Medical Staffing within 3 weeks of the closing date please assume you have not been shortlisted.
